Western Slope Triple Play

July 30th - August 1st, 2021

The Western Slope Triple Play is Colorado's only 3-day women's golf tournament. The format is 54 hole stroke play (players must have an active USGA Handicap Index). Play 3 of Western Colorado's most scenic and challenging courses - Tiara Rado Golf Course, Redlands Mesa Golf Course, and Adobe Creek National Golf Course. The value-priced entry fee is only $260 per player and includes green fees, cart, lunch, and prize money.

All Western Slope Triple Play proceeds benefit Hilltop's Latimer House, providing vital services to those affected by domestic violence, including emergency shelter, 24-hour crisis line, counseling, children's services, transitional housing and more. Join the Western Slope Triple Play and help us support this important cause.

All proceeds from the Western Slope Triple Play benefit Hilltop's Latimer House and those affected by domestic violence.

Hilltop's Latimer House

Latimer House's mission is to "provide opportunities to empower individuals to live violence-free lives." For over 40 years, Latimer House has improved lives by providing emergency shelter, intervention, and treatment for women and children while also helping to prevent abuse through educating the community about its presence, dynamics and treatment.

Latimer House is the only safe house in Mesa County moving those affected by domestic violence and sexual assault "from crisis to confidence."

Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Facts:

- Victims of intimate partner violence lose a total of 8 million days of paid work - the equivalent of more than 32,000 full time jobs and nearly 5.6 million days of household productivity each year as a result of abuse
- In 2019, the Mesa County District Attorney's Office reported nearly 830 domestic violence cases
- Victims of abuse often report they return to an abusive situation because they cannot find affordable long-term housing

Latimer House Services:

- Emergency safe house
- Case management and advocacy
- Group counseling
- Children's services
- Transitional housing
- 24-hour crisis line

In 2019 Latimer House:

- Responded to over 2,652 calls from individuals affected by domestic violence and sexual assault through the 24-hour crisis line
- Provided 264 women and children in Mesa County with safe house services
- Offered group sessions, case management, advocacy and counseling to an additional 182 community members
- Raised awareness in our community with 39 presentations about domestic violence and sexual assault
